ADJOURNMENT

Mr. Lennon

Many good things occur on a daily basis which never reach the media, and we may never hear about them from the 4:00 o'clock or the 11:00 o'clock news teams.

Today, I am pleased to tell you about an incident which involves an act of heroism and quick thinking on the part of a very special person.

This incident occurred at the Rosa Parks (Imperial/Wilmington) Blue Line Station and has a happy ending as a result of his efforts.

On May 31st, an MTA patron accidentally fell from the platform on to the rail.

Knowing that a train could arrive any moment, Mr. La Juan Ramsey who was standing nearby immediately went to the aid of the individual and pulled him to safety. Paramedics soon arrived and transported the injured party.

The story does not end there, however.

In the course of his efforts to give assistance, Mr. Ramsey had removed his wallet from his pocket and placed it on the platform. When he went to retrieve it, the wallet, his monthly pass and all that it contained was gone.

Today, we have invited Mr. Ramsey to the Operations Committee Meeting. We would like to thank him in person and help replace his lost items.

We could not allow a good deed of this magnitude go unrewarded.

I would now like to ask Mr. Ramsey to come to the podium and have Lt. Dave Tellez of the Los Angeles County Sheriffs Department present him with a check to cover the cost of his bus pass and other lost items.

(Pass the check to Dave Tellez and shake hands personally with Mr. Ramsey)
