SUBJECT: Los Angeles Times Inquiry

The Los Angeles Times has inquired regarding the status of two former employees who filed a wrongful termination lawsuit against the MTA for their termination in July, 1990. We informed the reporter that the MTA recently settled the suit with Allen Laster and Richard Yeats out of court, with a monetary payment of $600,000 to each former employee. The MTA admitted no liability and the agreement between the parties ends their claims against the MTA.

An article is expected to appear soon in the newspaper.
